PAULETTE JILES

EXPLORING NATIVE AMERICAN CULTURE THROUGH ORAL TRADITIONS, MUSIC & FOOD

Bloomington Public Library
Tuesday, October 2
7:00-8:00 p.m.

Dressed in traditional Ojibwa regalia, author Kim Sigafus will share her knowledge of many aspects of Native American cultures. Brought to us by the Illinois Humanities Road Scholars Speakers Bureau.

Portrait of Tshusick, an Ojibwa woman.
Lithograph by John T. Bowen, circa 1837.

NELLIE BLY: DAREDEVIL REPORTER

Roselle Public Library District
Tuesday, October 9 • 7:00 p.m.

Join us for a historic portrayal by Lynn Rymarz of the intrepid newspaper reporter, Nellie Bly. Nothing was too daring or impossible to scoop a headline for a story for this fascinating 19th century reporter! Hear how Nellie raced around the world in less than 80 days, had herself committed to an insane asylum, joined a chorus line and more, all in the name of electrifying journalism.

Frank Leslie's Illustrated Newspaper,
January 1890 edition.

EAT LIKE A NATIVE AMERICAN: COOKING WITH SISTER CROPS

Itasca Community Library
Wednesday, October 10 • 7:00 p.m.

Chef Rose Deneen will demonstrate three dishes using the three sister crops grown by Native Americans - beans, corn, and squash. Learn to incorporate all three vegetables into a delicious, healthy meal plan. Recipes and samples will be available.

RICK PICKREN: SONGS FROM THE LONESOME PRAIRIE

Roselle Public Library District
Sunday, October 7 • 1:30-3:00 p.m.

Singer-songwriter-actor Rick Pickren is a descendant of Buffalo Bill Cody. He is a two-time winner of the Marlboro Country Music Roundup and has shared the stage with George Strait, Merle Haggard, The Judds, Dolly Parton, and Alabama. Saddle up and ride on down the trail with Rick as he sings America's favorite western classics.

THREE ILLINOIS WOMEN OF THE CIVIL WAR ERA

Itasca Community Library
Thursday, October 11 • 7:00 p.m.

Historical actor Betty Kay brings to life three distinct Illinois women who were involved with the Civil War: Jenny Hodges passed as a man and fought in the war, Mother Bricherdyke established 300 field hospitals and assisted on 19 battlefields, and Julia Dent Grant was the wife of the Commanding General of the Union Army.

A GLIMPSE OF THE OLD WEST

Roselle Public Library District

Saturday, October 13 • 12:30-4:00 p.m.

Enjoy light refreshments and get a glimpse of the real "Wild West" in an afternoon screening of selected episodes from Ken Burns' documentary series The West in the library atrium.

THE NATIONAL PARK SERVICE: 100 YEARS PLUS

Roselle Public Library District

Wednesday, October 17 • 7:00 p.m.

Described by some as "America's best idea," the National Park Service celebrated its 100th anniversary in 2016 and now is in year 102. Setting aside particularly beautiful, scientific or historic sites and making them available to the public were unprecedented actions in world history. Professor Norm Moline will review highlights of NPS history, then focus on two National Parks in Texas - Big Bend National Park and San Antonio Missions National Historical Park.

WESTERN STYLE:

THE ART OF REMINGTON, RUSSELL & CATLIN

Bloomington Public Library

Thursday, October 18 • 7:00-8:00 p.m.

More than a century ago, artists Charles Russell, Frederic Remington and George Catlin expressed the spirit of the Old West in paintings and sculptures. In this slide lecture, art historian Jeff Mishur discusses key works by these artists and relates them to the larger context of American art.

Painting by Frederic Remington circa 1908.

Reading the News - Off Duty
Drawing by Edwin Forbes

FACTS & LEGENDS OF THE OLD WEST

Bloomington Public Library

Monday, October 22 • 7:00-8:00 p.m.

Dr. Brian Moran, professor of History at College of DuPage, will discuss the history, culture, and identity of the Kiowa, Native Americans who moved across the Great Plains, and share some facts and legends of the Old West.

LEATHER LARIAT & BOHO MACRAME NECKLACES

Bloomington Public Library

Tuesday, October 23 • 7:00-8:00 p.m.

For this jewelry craft, we will make Southwestern inspired necklaces using leather, bronze, and rope.

Space is limited to 20 adults.

THE HISTORY OF AMERICAN NEWSPAPERS: FREEDOM OF THE PRESS

Itasca Community Library

Monday, October 29 • 7:00 p.m.

Learn about the history of newspapers in America from colonial times to present day. Discover how the newspaper business was influenced by people such as William Randolph Hearst, Colonel Robert McCormick, and others.
