

Andrew W. Aspseter

Andrew William Aspseter, 95, Exeland, died Sunday, Dec.21 2003 at Lakeview Medical Center, Rice Lake, after a short illness. He was born Aug. 5, 1908 at Hubble, Mi., the son of John and Anna Nelson Aspseter. Andrew was in the sailing business for about 40 years. His main job was a wheelman on the Great Lakes with shipping companies. He retired about 30 years ago. He was a craftsman and enjoyed wood carving. He also enjoyed the outdoors, hunting, fishing and ball games. He and Helen Lenora Wilson were married on Dec. 24, 1935 at Glen Flora. He was a very loving husband and a proud father. He belonged to the Exeland United Methodist Church. In addition to his wife Helen, he is survived by two daughters, Bonnie Hoffman of Los Amamas, Co. and Andrea (Dorsey) Peterson of Ellsworth; one son, Robert Gene (Karen) Aspseter of Alexandria Mn.; 7 grandchildren; 4 great-grandsons; two sisters, Olga Carlson of Minneapolis and Claire Bolden of IL.; and one brother, Harold (Vida)Aspseter of Exeland. In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by 2 sons, Dennis and Robert. Funeral services were Saturday, December 27, 2003 at 11 am at the Exeland United Methodist Church, with Rev. Linda Shearer, Rev. Walt DeVor, Rev. Mark Peacock and Dr. Rev. Chomingwen Pond, officiating. Burial will be in the Windfall Cemetery in Exeland. Nash Jackan Funeral Home assisted with arrangements.

No paper – no date