Nancy L. Brackmann
Marengo

Miss Nancy Lou Brackmann, 17, of 17602 Harmony Road, Marengo, was killed Sunday when the car in which she was a passenger went off the road and struck a tree. She was born in Belvedere Feb. 12, 1957, the daughter of Arthur E. and Verna Finke Brackmann. She was a graduate of Zion Lutheran School and would have been a senior in High School. She was employed as a custodial aide in Marengo School District 140 and was to have worked this summer at Aubrey Manufacturing in Union. She was active in FHA (Future Homemakers of America) and particularly interested in the child care program. In addition to her parents, she is survived by two brothers, James and Larry, both at home; one sister, Mrs. Gary (Diane) Smith of Carbondale.
