

From the Arlington Heights Herald Page 4 Friday, January 5, 1951

Mrs. Emma Clausing

Funeral services for Mrs. Emma Clausing, Palatine, were held at Immanuel Lutheran Church Tuesday afternoon with interment in Memorial Gardens, Arlington heights. She passed away Dec. 29 at St. Joseph's hospital, Elgin, where she had been confined the past three months. She leaves two sons, Arthur and Willard, and two daughters, Ruth and Irene, all residing at home; brothers Carl and Elmer Opfer; and sisters Edna Schukar and Anna Sasse. Deceased was born Aug. 24, 1899 at St. Paul, Ill. She came to Palatine when she married Arthur Clausing April 20, 1924. He preceded her in death.