

Mrs. Marie B. Clausing
(Arlington Heights)

Mrs. Marie Bornack Clausing, 59, wife of John Clausing died Thursday morning in her home, 202 S. Vall Ave., Arlington Heights. She was a lifetime resident of the area, born at Northfield, Ill. and was active in all phases of the women's work in St. Peter's Lutheran Church. She held membership in the Ladies Aid, Dorcas Society and the Mission Endeavor. Besides the widower, survivors are two daughters, Mrs. Luella Linde of Arlington Heights, Mrs. Leona Tucek of Forest Park; two sons, Erwin and Vernon of Arlington Heights; three grandchildren, five sisters, Mrs. Emma Wolf, Mrs. Martha Duensing, Mrs. Bertha Pfohl, Mrs. Minnie Wittner and Mrs. Hilda Verdico and two brothers, Fred Jr., and Arthur Bornack. Services at 2:30 Sunday afternoon will be in the St. Peter's Evangelical Lutheran Church and burial will be at Rand Hill Cemetery. Friends may call at the Black Memorial funeral home in Arlington Heights.