

John Craddock of Glen Ellyn since 1941. A memorial service for John Craddock, 98, will be held at 10 a.m. Friday, at First Presbyterian Church, Main and Anthony Street, Glen Ellyn. The Rev. Jerry Andrew will officiate. Born June 6, 1904, in Ayr, Scotland, he passed away peacefully to meet his savior early on the morning of Monday, Sept. 16, 2002, at Bloomingdale Pavillion in Bloomingdale. His ashes will be interred next to those of his wife, Bunnie, in the Garden of Remembrance in the church courtyard. A Christian, John received his education in Scotland and, with his parents and sister, immigrated to America, arriving in Duluth, Minn., in September 1921. There he met Bernice Campbell, known to all as "Bunnie," and they married on March 25, 1927, enjoying more than 65 years together. In 1928 the family moved to Chicago, and in April 1941 they bought a home in Glen Ellyn, the very same month when John proudly became a citizen of his adopted country. The family joined First Presbyterian Church of Glen Ellyn and John served as Sunday school superintendent, deacon and elder. John found work with the Bradstreet Company, the predecessor of Dun & Bradstreet, where he worked as a credit reporter, salesman and manager, finally serving as vice president of marketing until his retirement in 1969. After his retirement, he became the first business administrator for his church and served in that capacity for 12 years. In 1995 he wrote and published a history of his church in celebration of the congregation's 70th anniversary. Surviving are his sister, Margaret; children, Campbell (Dorothy), Bruce (Heather) and Marjorie; grandchildren, Susan (Craig) Rohlf, John (Patti) Craddock, Carol (Gregg) Hammann, Michael Craddock, Lisa Craddock (Steven) Thitoff, David (Xiao Ling) Craddock, Tiffany (Brian) Wermund and Alexander Davis; and great-grandchildren, LeAnne, Thomas, Suzanne, Cara, Erica, Derek, Grant, Troy, Savannah and Yi Yi. He was preceded in death by his wife, Bunnie, in 1992. In lieu of flowers, memorial gifts may be made to First Presbyterian Church, 500 Anthony St., Glen Ellyn, IL 60137. Arrangements were made by Leonard Memorial Home Ltd., Glen Ellyn. Friends may visit www.dailyherald.com/obits to express condolences and sign the guest book. For funeral information, (630)469-0032. Be faithful until death, and I will give you the crown of life - Rev. 2:10.

Source: The Daily Herald - Wednesday, September 18, 2002