

Olga Marie Davajon formerly of Bloomingdale: A memorial service for Olga Marie Davajon, (nee Jacobs), 88, of Lake Bluff, will be held at 1 p.m. Thursday, at Carter Westminster Church, 4950 W. Pratt Ave., Skokie. Born Sept. 17, 1911, in Chicago, she died Saturday, May 27, 2000, in Pebblebrook Nursing and Rehabilitation Center in Lake Bluff. Burial will be private. Prior to her retirement, Mrs. Davajon worked in furniture sales for Carson Pirie Scott and Co. in the downtown Chicago store. She is survived by her son, George (Diana) Davajon of Arlington Heights; daughter, Sandra Davajon of Bloomingdale; niece, Loretta; and nephews, Issac and Ronald Jacobs. She was preceded in death by her husband, Shlemon; sister, Jennie; and brother-in-law, Bennie Jacobs. Visitation will be from 4 to 8 p.m. today, at Glueckert Funeral Home, Ltd., 1520 N. Arlington Heights Road, (four blocks south of Palatine Road), Arlington Heights. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to Carter Westminster Church, 4950 W. Pratt Ave., Skokie, IL 60077. For information, (847) 253-0168.

Source: The Daily Herald - Wednesday, May 31, 2000