

Donald W. Duda formerly of Lombard/Cloverdale: A memorial Mass for Donald W. Duda, 62, will be offered at 6 p.m. Friday, at St. Isidore Catholic Church, corner of Army Trail Road and Gary Ave., Bloomingdale. Born June 6, 1937, in Chicago, the son of Frank Joseph and Julia (nee Krzywda) Duda, he died in rural Wisconsin. Donald had been a home building architect. Survivors include his wife, Diana (nee Bell), whom he married on April 30, 1965, in Lombard; son, Joseph (Tammie) Duda; daughter, Darlene (Thomas) Pedersen; brothers, Frank J. Jr. (Pamela) Duda, Thomas (Cecile) Duda, Richard (Sandra) Duda and Robert (Louise) Duda. He was preceded in death by his parents.

Source: The Daily Herald - Thursday, August 5, 1999