

Marvin Dunteman, Barrington

Marvin W. Dunteman, 59, of Barrington, died Sunday in Sherman Hospital, Elgin. He was on the board of trustees of St. Matthew Church of Barrington and until his death had been president of the Roselle Lumber Co. Board. He was treasurer of the South Barrington Park District; secretary of the Lake-Cook farm Supply Board; a member of the Cook County Agricultural Extension Council and many other agricultural organizations. Surviving are his wife, Lorraine Stanek Dunteman; four daughters, Mrs. Bruce (Susan Rucks of Elgin, Mrs. Michael (Judy) Lehrer of Peoria, Ariz., Mrs. Arland (Jean) Prestidge of Kaneville and Karen Dunteman of Barrington; 2 sons, William and Robert, both of Barrington; six grandchildren, a sister, Mrs. Wilbert Elda) Heinrich of Hampshire; and a brother, Edward W. of Sugar Grove. Services will be at 2 pm Thursday in St. Matthew Church, Barrington, the Rev. Robert Moll and Rev. Herbert Heinemann both officiating. Burial will be in Lakewood Memorial Park Cemetery, Elgin. Visitation will be Wednesday from 2-9 in the Ahlgrim and Sons Funeral Home, 330 W. Golf Road, Schaumburg.

Elgin Courier News Tuesday May 10, 1983

---

11-11-1923 to 5-1983

Mr. Marvin Dunteman, 59, of Barrington, died Sunday in Sherman Hospital, Elgin. He had farmed in Cook, Kane and DuPage Counties all his life. Surviving are his wife, Lorraine Stanek Dunteman; 4 daughters, Mrs. Bruce (Susan) Rucks of Elgin, Mrs. Michael (Judy) Lehrer of Peoria, Arizona, Mrs. Arland (Jean) Prestidge of Kaneville and Karen Dunteman of Barrington; 2 sons, William and Robert both of Barrington; 6 grandchildren; a sister Mrs. Wilbert (Elda) Heinrich and a brother, Edward, of Sugar Grove. Services will be at 2 p.m. Thursday in St. Matthew Church, Barrington, the Rev. Robert Moll officiating. Burial will be in Lakewood Memorial Park Cemetery, Elgin.