

Louise K. Dunteman
Formerly of Elgin

Louise K. Dunteman, 85, of Rockton, Il., formerly of Elgin, died Wednesday, May 8, in her home. She was born Jan 11, 1911, in Aurora, the daughter of Frank and Mary Einig Becker. She had lived in Rockton since 1986, moving there from Elgin. She was a homemaker and past member of the Elks Club. Survivors include her husband, Raymond E. Dunteman, whom she married Nov. 4, 1950, in Elgin; a son, Louis A. Bosco of Palm Springs, Calif; a daughter, Cindy (Dean) Snowdon of Roscoe, Il.; six grandchildren, Jeffrey Bosco, Kirklun (Beverly), Brook (Sherie) and Kimberly (Ronald) Ginn, Stephanie Boscoe and Jonathan Snowdon; five great-grandchildren, Zachary, Hannah, Stacy and Louis Bosco and Ronald Ginn; three sisters, Marge De Bruycker, Shirley Toma and Ann Christian; ices and nephews. Besides her parents, she was preceded in death by seven brothers and three sisters. Memorial services will be 11 am Monday at Cross and Crown Lutheran Church, 7404 Elevator Road, Roscoe, the Rev. John Heins officiating. Memorials may be made to Beloit Hospice, Inc., 2958 Prairie Ave., Beloit, Wi. 53511, or the National Diabetes Association.

Elgin Courier-News – May ?, ????