

Mary Ann Dunteman

Mary Ann Dunteman, age 65, of Sugar Grove, passed away unexpectedly Friday morning Nov. 11, at Delnor-Community Hospital, Geneva, where she suffered a massive heart attack. She was born April 26, 1929, in Bloomingdale, the daughter of John Coppock and Laura Zarndt. She attended country schools, where she at age five, met the boy who would later become her husband. She went on to graduate from Glenbard High School. On Sept. 7, 1952, she was united in marriage to Edwin Dunteman in Bloomingdale. They made their home in Bloomingdale for several years before moving to Sugar Grove in 1961, where they have, since farmed. Mary Ann was a member of Sugar Grove United Methodist Church and for many years volunteered at the former Geneva Community Hospital. A devoted wife and mother, she helped her daughter, Kris, at Batavia Floral Shop on special holidays. She enjoyed reading stories to her grandchildren while seated on her lap. A lover of music, reading, golfing and travel, Mary Ann lead an active and interesting life. A friendly, yet privately quiet person, she enjoyed the solitude of her garden and entertained herself and her family for many hours at the organ. She is survived by her husband, Edwin Dunteman of Sugar Grove; 2 daughters Kris Dunteman (Charlie Rzeppa) of Sugar Grove, and Kathy (Jim) Hoscheid of Cherry, Ill.; one son, Jim (Katy) Dunteman of Blackberry Township; three grandchildren, Aaron, 8, and Jared, 5 Hoscheid and Nick Dunteman, 2; her mother, Laura Coppock of Bloomingdale; 1 brother, Lloyd (Mary) Coppock of Mountain Home, Ark.; and numerous nieces and nephews; aunts and cousins. In addition, she leaves a family of friends many of whom will remember the best part of golfing was the "Nineteenth Hole." She is preceded in death by one daughter, Jerilynn Dunteman, and her father, John Coppock. Funeral services were held at 11 am Monday, Nov 14, from the Sugar Grove United Methodist Church, Pastor Steven Good officiated. Interment was at Sugar Grove Cemetery. Memorials in her name may be made to the American Cancer Society, 17 N. River St., Batavia, Ill. 60510; or the Sugar Grove United Methodist Church, P.O. Box 226, Sugar Grove, Ill. 60554. Visitation was Sunday at the Conley Funeral Home, 116 W. Pierce St., Elburn.
