

Mrs. Margaret Fesler 7-14-1894 December 1979 nee Steinhour; married a Grover Fesler who died in 1947. Burial Friends Creek Cemetery, Argenta, Il.

Margaret Fesler
Argenta

Margaret E. Fesler, 85, of Argenta, Ill., died Monday in Fair Oaks Nursing Home, Elgin. She was born July 14, 1894, in Minier, Ill., the daughter of John and Minnie Hampel Steinhour, and had lived in Argenta all her life. She was a member of the Argenta United Methodist Church, where she had been a Sunday school teacher for many years. She also was a member of the women's society of the church and had served as secretary for 59 years. She also had served as clerk of Friends Creek Township for 20 years. In 1915, she was married to Grover C. Fesler. He died in 1947. Surviving is a daughter, Mrs. Ralph (Mauna) Schimmel of Elgin; two grandsons and one great granddaughter; a brother, Charles Steinhour of Reno, Nev., and a sister, Mrs. Helen Tabor of Peoria. Besides her husband, she was preceded in death by four brothers and three sisters. Funeral services will be at 10:30 am Friday in the Dawson and Wikoff Funeral Home, Argenta. Burial will be at Friends Creek Cemetery, Argenta. Visitation will be from 2 to 4.