

Memorial services for Minnette E. Fessler (nee Krueger), 72, formerly of Bloomingdale , will be held at 10:30 a.m. Wednesday at St. Paul's United Church of Christ, 118 First St., Bloomingdale . The Rev. Dean Plassman will officiate. She was born in Bloomingdale and had been a resident of Daytona Beach, Fla., since 1983. She leaves her husband, LeRoy; her daughters, Nancy Meeks of Woodstock, Ga., Karen Bussing of Decatur and JoAnn Tobolik of Roselle; her son, William of McDonough, Ga.; her sister, Dorothy McCumber of Canandaigua, N.Y.; and four grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her parents; her brother, William; and her granddaughter, Kari Michelle. She was a loving wife, devoted mother and doting granny. Minnette leaves many friends. The family requests no flowers. Memorial donations may be made to Grace Community Church, New Smyrna Beach, Fla.

Source: The Daily Herald - Sunday, June 1, 1997