

Vera Ruth Woodcock Flentge, 58, of Carpentersville, died Tuesday, Jun 17, at her daughters' home in Lake in the Hills. She was born May 16, 1939, in Argos, Ind. She was a resident of Carpentersville for 34 years and a retired worker for Mortorola in Schaumburg with 25 years of service. She supported many environmental and animal rights organizations. Survivors include her husband, David W. of Carpentersville; a son David S. (Joyce) of Carpentersville; two daughters, Deborah S. Flentge of Lake in the Hills, and Dorothy S. Flentge of Madison, Wis., two sisters, Dorothy... PAGE ENDS HERE.

No source – Thursday June 19, 1997