

Mrs. Henry C. Glade

Mrs. Louise Glade, nee Mensching, passed away at her home in Mt. Prospect Saturday, October 7 after two months illness, during which she sustained repeated stroke attacks. The funeral was held Tuesday from Lauterburg & Oehler chapel, Des Plaines, to St. Paul Church, Mt. Prospect, Rev. J. E. A. Mueller officiating. Interment was in Ridgewood cemetery. Deceased was born in Wheeling Township May 15, 1871, and married Henry C. Glade of Palatine May 13, 1899. For a time they lived in Palatine, later moving to Mt. Prospect, where they resided 38 years. All of their eight children survive. They are: three daughters, Mrs. Geo. Neitzke and Mrs. Emma Kruse, Mt. Prospect, and Mrs. Arthur Greinke, Chicago; five sons, George, Henry and Rudolph of Mt. Prospect; Edward of Des Plaines and Alfred of Schaumburg. There are 19 grandchildren, one sister, Mrs. Henry Clausing, Mt. Prospect and one brother, Henry of Mt. Prospect.