

Woodrow W. Gregory

Woodrow (Woody) W. Gregory, 58, of West Chicago died unexpectedly Sunday at his home. Born Jan 3, 1919, in Dallas, Texas, he lived most of his life in West Chicago. He was the building commissioner for the village of Glendale Heights for the last 12 years. He was the Building Commissioner for the city of West Chicago from 1960 to 1965. He was a member of the Suburban Building Officials Conference, the Building Officials and Code Administrators International, The International Association of Electrical Inspectors and the Fraternal Order of Police. He was an army veteran of WWII. He is survived by his wife, Pearl; one son, Wayne, of West Chicago; three daughters, Dahlas, Donna and Debra; two grandchildren; one brother, William of Olympia, Wash., and three sisters, Carol (Jehns) Carlson of Melrose Park, Mildred Kleinman of Olympia, Wash. and Florence (Joe) Manas of Aurora. He was preceded in death by his parents and one sister. Services will be at 11 a.m. today at Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church, George and Sherman Streets., West Chicago. Burial will be at River Hills Memorial Park, Batavia. Memorial contributions may be made to Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church or the Bethesda Lutheran Home, Watertown, Wisc. Funeral arrangements were by Woodward Funeral Home, West Chicago.

The Bloomingdale Star – Wednesday, February 16, 1977