

Edward Hahnfeldt

Edward C. Hahnfeldt, a resident of Palatine for the past 26 years, passed away at his home Wednesday evening, November 7, after many weeks of serious illness. He was born in Arlington Heights, August 21, 1890. During the past 25 years Mr. Hahnfeldt worked with the Otis Elevator Company of Chicago, of which nine years were spent as superintendent of operations. Mr. Hahnfeldt was active in the Masonic lodge as past master of the Palatine Lodge, A. F. & A. M. No. 314, Palatine chapter R. A. M. No. 206, Oriental Consistory—Valley of Chicago, Medinah Temple, A. A. O. M. S., past patron of Palatine Chapter of the O. E. S. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Emily Hahnfeldt, a son Edward Frank of Des Plaines, a daughter, Mrs. Grace Marie Goedke, Arlington Heights, a son Ens. Raymond C., serving in the South Pacific, three grandchildren; brothers, Arthur, August, of Chicago; Elmer; sisters, Mrs. Lily Becker and Mrs. Mary Baumgarten, Arlington Heights. Funeral services were held from St. Paul Evangelical and Reformed church, Palatine Sunday, November 11, at 2:30 p.m., with the Rev. Glenn G. Gumm officiating. Services were held by the Masonic lodge at Rand Hill Park cemetery, John Mangels officiating, with John Rein as chaplain.