

Lydia Hattendorf
Burlington

Mrs. Henry (Lydia) Hattendorf, 81, a former resident of Burlington, died at the Applewood Nursing Home in Matteson on Saturday. She was born April 13, 1893 in Ontarioville, the daughter of the late William and Christine Wilkening Litchthardt. She was married to Henry Hattendorf Aug. 25, 1915 in Burlington, where she lived most of her life. Surviving are one daughter, Mrs. Arne (Renelva) Schairer of Flossmoor; a son, Norton of Burlington, and seven grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her husband in 1972, her parents, three sisters, and one brother. She was a member of the St. John's Lutheran Church of Burlington, The Ladies' Aid Society of the church and the JGC Club. Funeral services will be held at 1:30 pm Tuesday at the St. John's Lutheran Church with the Rev. Paul Brunner officiating. Burial will be in Union Cemetery, Burlington. Visitation will be at the Frederick Funeral Home, in Hampshire, from 3 to 5 and 7 to 9 pm today. Memorial contributions may be made to the St John's Lutheran Church of Burlington.

No Paper – No Date