

February 1937

Mr. Arthur C. Hitzeman, 38 years old, died Saturday afternoon at his home in Roselle following a brief illness. He was born July 13, 1899 in Roselle where he had lived all his life. Surviving him are his widow, Esther; a son, Richard, a daughter Judith Anne; 3 brothers, Henry C and Harry H of Chicago and George of Elgin, 2 sisters Mrs. Walter Hattendorf of Roselle and Mrs. Edward Lichthardt of Barrington Township. A son, David, preceded him in death. Mr. Hitzeman was a member of the Rogers Park Post 108 American Legion. Funeral services will be held Tuesday afternoon at 2 from St. Paul Evangelical Church at Bloomingdale. Burial will be held in Bloomingdale Cemetery. Friends may call at the Waite-Ross-Allanson Chapel Monday afternoon and Tuesday morning.

---

Arthur C. Hitzeman

Arthur C. Hitzeman, 38 years old, died Saturday afternoon at his home in Roselle, following a brief illness. He was born July 13, 1899, in Roselle where he had lived all of his life. Surviving are his widow, Esther; a son, Richard; a daughter, Judith Ann; three brothers, Henry C. and Harry H. of Chicago and George W. of Elgin; two sisters, Mrs. Walter Hattendorf of Roselle and Mrs. Edward Lichthardt of Barrington Township. A son, David preceded him in death. Mr. Hitzeman was a member of Rogers Park Post 108 American Legion. Funeral services will be held Tuesday afternoon at 2 from St. Paul's Evangelical Church in Bloomingdale. Burial will be in Bloomingdale cemetery. Friends may call at the Waite-Ross-Allanson Chapel Monday afternoon and Tuesday morning.

The Elgin Daily Courier-News Monday, February 1, 1937