

Henry C. Hitzemann

Henry C. Hitzemann, 62, of 303 York Ave., West Chicago, a veteran of 38 years service as a train man with the Chicago and Northwestern Railroad, died in Geneva Community Hospital late Wednesday afternoon following a two and a half month illness. He was born in Hanover Township, Cook County, on Feb. 4, 1884, a son of Henry G. and Julia Flentge Hitzeman. Mr. Hitzeman had made his home in West Chicago for 33 years and prior to that, resided in Dundee, Crystal Lake, and Lake Geneva, Wis. He was employed in the Northwestern's Chicago Suburban Service Division and was a member of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen. Besides the widow, Mrs. Elizabeth Marie Miller Hitzeman, to whom Mr. Hitzeman was married on July 25, 1908, survivors are two sons, Raymond H. Hitzeman and Joseph E. Hitzeman, both of West Chicago; a daughter, Miss Eleanor J. Hitzeman, a teacher in Elkhart, Ind. Schools; two brothers, Herman F. Hitzeman of Elgin and Elmer Hitzeman of New York City; two sisters, Mrs. Violet Fenlon of New York City and Mrs. Irene Danielson of Sacramento, Calif., and two grandchildren, Karen Sue and Rae Anne Hitzeman, both of West Chicago. Services Saturday afternoon at 2 will be conducted in the West Chicago Congregational Church, of which Mr. Hitzeman was a member, with the Rev. Emerald Olson officiating. Burial will be in Glen Oak Cemetery. Friends may call at the late home after Friday noon.
