

Wilhelmina M. Hitzemann Dies This Morning at Home

Mrs. Wilhelmina Margaret Hitzemann, 67, 226 Fifth Avenue, wife of A.P. Hitzemann, died at the family residence at 10:30 o'clock this morning following an illness since January 19. Mrs. Hitzeman was born near Millersberg, O., March 2, 1878, and came to Kansas with her parents, Frederick and Katherine Bernhardt, and settled on a farm near Jarbalo. She was the oldest daughter of a large family. She was married to Adolph P. Hitzeman at her home on March 2, 1898. Mrs. Hitzemann, member of the Salem Evangelical Church and a member of the Ladies Aid and Ladies Circle of the church. Surviving are her husband, Adolph P. Hitzeman, of the home address; one daughter, Mrs. Alma Louise Robinson of Oklahoma City, Okla; one son, Albert A. Hitzemann of San Bernadino, Calif.; one sister, Mrs. J.H. Hadallar of San Bernadino, Calif.; three brothers, John Bernhardt, Reno; Albert Bernhardt, Yackama, Wash.; and one grandson. Funeral services will be announced later. The body is at the Sexton Funeral Chapel.

No paper – March 27, 1945