

Services for Frank J. Kriepps, 66, of Roselle, will be held at 10 a.m. Tuesday, Oct. 29, at Salerno's Rosedale Chapels, 450 W. Lake St. (3/4 mile west of Bloomingdale / Roselle Road), Roselle, going to St. Walter Church for 11 a.m. service. He was born Dec. 26, 1929, and died Saturday, Oct. 26, in Evanston. Interment will be private. He was a prominent leader in the Chicago plastics industry prior to founding his own custom plastic injection molding company, ADMO Inc., of Schaumburg, in 1977. He managed the plastics divisions of Container Corp. of America and Grede Foundries Inc., in Chicago and National Lock Corp. in Rockford. He served on the board of directors for the Society of Plastics Industry for several years and as an officer in both the Chicago and Rockford chapters of the Society of Plastic Engineers. Survivors include his wife, Pearl (nee Smarsty); his children, Jacqueline (Frederick) Schattner, Michele (Jeffrey) Anderson, and Matthew (Deborah); his mother, Lucie Krupa and five grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his father, Mathieu. Visitation will be from 3 to 9 p.m. Monday, Oct. 28, at the chapel. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to American Brain Tumor Association, 2720 S. River Road., Des Plaines, Ill. 60018. For information, (708) 889-1700.

Source: The Daily Herald - Sunday, October 27, 1996