

Wilma R. Leo: Services for Wilma R. Leo (nee Range), 86, of Windsor Park Manor, Carol Stream, formerly a longtime resident of Wheaton, will be held at 11 a.m. Friday, at Gary Memorial United Methodist Church, Main and Seminary Sts., Wheaton. Born June 6, 1911, in Palmyra, Ill., she died Tuesday, Jan. 6, 1998, at the Johnson Medical Facility. Interment will follow the services, in Wheaton Cemetery. Mrs. Leo lived in Jacksonville, Ill. during her childhood and graduated from Jacksonville High School in 1928. She later graduated from MacMurray College in Illinois with a bachelor of music degree, and did post-graduate work at MacMurray College, Western Illinois University, Illinois State University at Normal, the University of Colorado, Northwestern University, Chicago Musical College and Ball State University. She was a school music teacher for more than 40 years, and worked at Franklin Elementary School in Jacksonville, schools in Hammond, Ind., and the Bloomingdale, Wiesbrook, McAuley, Pleasant Hill and Keenyville schools in the western suburbs. She finally retired from the Carol Stream Elementary Schools. Mrs. Leo was a longtime active member of Gary Memorial United Methodist Church where she was a member of the Deborah Circle. She was also an active member of Delta Kappa Gamma, Beta Kappa Chapter, and had been a member of the Wheaton Department Club. She is survived by her daughter, Nancy Leo (William G.I.) Moore of Birmingham, Ala. She was preceded in death by her husband, James 'Barney' Leo in 1991. Visitation will be from 3 to 8 p.m. today, at Hultgren Funeral Home, 304 N. Main St., Wheaton. Memorials may be made to Gary Memorial United Methodist Church. For information, (630) 668-0027.

Source: The Daily Herald - Thursday, January 8, 1998