

Copyright 1961 – Chicago Tribune record # 19610916dn059

Amalia Lichthardt (Mollie Schueneman)

Amalia Lichthardt, of 1400 Hinman avenue, Evanston, widow of Albert Lichthardt, mother of Mrs. John F. Beckman of Glenview; Grandmother of Thomas N. and Steven J. Beckman; sister of Mrs. Clara Mensching, Mrs. Albert Diekman, Mrs. Paul Schuler, William and Erwin Schueneman, the late Sarah, Alvin Bierman and Sophia Springinsguth. Resting at Wm. H. Scott Chapel, 1460 Sherman Avenue, Evanston, until 10 am Saturday. Lying in state at St. Luke's Evangelical Lutheran Church, 1500 Belmont Ave., Chicago, from noon until service Saturday, 1:30 pm UN4-7250

Copyright 1961 – Chicago Tribune record # 19610915ob010

Mrs. Amalia Lichthardt

Mrs. Amalia Lichthardt, 75, of 1400 Hinman Ave., Evanston, died last night in Evanston Hospital. Mrs. Lichthardt was president of the Lakeview Cartage Company, 337 E. Illinois St., and had operated the company since the death of her husband, Albert in 1934. Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Ruth Beckman; two grandchildren, three sisters and two brothers. Services will be held at 1:30 pm tomorrow in St. Luke's Evangelical Lutheran Church, 1500 Belmont Ave.