

Carrie E. Mulligan. Services for Carrie E. Mulligan (nee Gutenschwager), 88, will be held at 11 a.m. today, at Williams-Kampp Funeral Home, 430 E. Roosevelt Road (one block east of Naperville Road), Wheaton. The Rev. Russell Belisle will officiate. Born May 17, 1913, at her home in Forest Park, she died Saturday, June 16, 2001, at the Alden Valley Ridge Health Care Center, in Bloomingdale . Burial will be in Mount Auburn Cemetery, in Stickney, Ill. She was the daughter of the late Charles and Elizabeth Schultz Gutenschwager, the 12th of 13 children and the last of her siblings. At an early age, she was received in fellowship at St. John Lutheran Church in Forest Park, whose minister was Pastor Russell Belisle. As a young widow, she became the owner and operator of Schwartz Cleaners in Oak Park until her retirement. Carrie was the beloved wife of the late Walter; loving and devoted mother of Wayne (Sonja), Michael (Sharon), Alan (Goldie) and the late Dennis (the late Janet) Mulligan; cherished grandmother of eight; and great-grandmother of four. For information, (630)668-0016.

Source: Daily Herald - Wednesday, June 20, 2001