

Louis Nerge
(Palatine)

Louis Nerge, 61, of Palatine, a Veteran of World War I, died Monday after a long illness. He was born in Schaumburg July 29, 1894, and had resided in that area all his life. He was a carpenter and a member of Palatine Post 690, American Legion. Survivors include the widow, Selma; two daughters, Mrs. Marion Hivon of Mount Prospect and Mrs. Jean Vetter of Arlington Heights; four grandchildren; two brothers, Edward and George Nerge of Elgin, and a sister, Mrs. Elmer Pfingsten of Hinsdale. Funeral services will be held at 1:30 Thursday afternoon at the Black Memorial Home in Arlington Heights and burial will be in Elm Lawn Cemetery.

Elgin Courier News, Tuesday, July 17, 1956