

George Nerge
(Elgin)

George Nerge, 61, of 106 Cherry St., died unexpectedly Sunday Morning. Born March 17, 1896, at Schaumburg, he had lived there most of his life, having resided in Elgin for the past 16 years. He was employed at the Admiral Corp. in Harvard until illness forced him to retire two years ago. He was a member of St. John's Lutheran Church of Elgin, VFW 1307 and American Legion Post 265 of Harvard. He had been in the army, enlisting Sept. 21, 1917, and serving until May 31, 1919. He was preceded in death by a brother. Surviving are a brother, Edward of Elgin; a sister, Mrs. Elmer (Marie) Pfingsten of Hinsdale, and several nieces and nephews. Services will be held at 1:30 pm Wednesday in the Schmidt Funeral Home, the Rev. E.T. Grotelueschen, pastor of St. John's Lutheran Church officiating. Friends may call at the funeral home after 7 tonight.
