

Leora Nerge
(East Dundee)

Leora G. Nerge, 64, of East Dundee died Tuesday, Dec. 26, at Sherman Hospital, Elgin. She was born April 24, 1925, in Elgin, the daughter of Louis and Grace Borhart. She was a lifelong resident of the area and was a member of Immanuel Lutheran Church, East Dundee. Surviving are two sons, David (Barbara) of East Dundee and Donald (Becky) of Calico Rock, Ark.; a daughter, Patricia (Dennis) Sullivan of Fox River Grove; six grandchildren, Jeremy, Amy, Rose, Melissa, Amanda and Caitlyn; and three brothers, Delwin (Frances) Borhart, Wilmer (Verna) Borhart and Harold (Pearl) Borhart, all of Huntley. Besides her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband, Delbert, and a son, Jerry.

No paper – no date

12-1989

Mrs. Leora Nerge, 64, of East Dundee, died Tuesday, December 26, at Sherman Hospital, Elgin. She was born April 24, 1925 in Elgin, the daughter of Louis and Grace Benhart. She was a lifelong resident of the area and was a member of Immanuel Lutheran Church, East Dundee. Surviving are two sons, David (Barbara) of East Dundee and Donald (Becky) of Calico Rock, Arkansas; a daughter, Patricia (Dennis) Sullivan of Fox River Grove and 6 grandchildren and 3 brothers. Besides her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband, Delbert, and a son, Jerry. Services will be at 11 am Saturday at Miller Funeral Home, West Dundee, the Rev. Jack Heino officiating. Burial will be in Dundee Township Cemetery, East Dundee.