

Thelma Nerge
Elgin

Thelma Nerge, 70, of Willow Lake Estates, Elgin, died Thursday in Sherman Hospital, Elgin. She was born April 14, 1908, in Dundee, where she lived most of her life. She was the daughter of Leon and Catherine St. Peter. She was a member of the Immanuel Lutheran Church of Dundee and the 50 plus club, and had been employed by Gromer Foods of Elgin and IGA Supermarket. Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Eugene (Jacqueline) Turskey of Algonquin; two grandchildren; two sisters, Mrs. Harry (Ruth) Petschow Sr., of Willow Lake Estates, and Mrs. Charles (Kathryn) Holthusen of St. Petersburg, Fla., and a brother, Rowland St. Peter of Lake Mills, Wis. Besides her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband, Oscar; a sis... (Obituary is cut off here)

No Paper – no date (November) 3?

11-1978

Mrs. Thelma Nerge, 70, of Willow Lake Estates, Elgin, died Thursday in Sherman Hospital, Elgin. She was born April 4, 1908, in Dundee where she lived most of her life. She was the daughter of Leon and Catherine St. Peter. Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Jaqueline Turskey of Algonquin; 2 grandchildren, 2 sisters and a brother. Besides her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband, Oscar, a sister and a brother. Burial will be in Lake Street Memorial Park.