

Bloomingtondale Family Killed In Plane Crash

Tim H. O'Connell, 42, his wife, Nadine, and son Tim Jr., 8 years old, of Bloomingtondale were killed when their twin engine Cessna crashed last Wednesday night. O'Connell took off from the Land O Lakes Airport at Iron River, Michigan at 11pm to return home from their summer house. The plane burst into flames minutes after takeoff and crashed into nearby woods. The O'Connell's resided at 385 Oriole in Bloomingtondale. The Federal Aviation Agency is investigating the cause of the accident.

Village News - July 24, 1974