

Henry W. Pauling, 60 years old, who had lived for several years in Roselle and was well known through visits in Elgin died Monday at his home in Chicago following several paralytic strokes. He had been employed for 25 years by the Childs and Smith architectural concern in Chicago. The son of Mrs. Caroline P. Pauling and the late John H. Pauling, he is survived by his widow, Matilda, a son, Arthur, and a daughter, Myrtle, and two grandchildren, all of Chicago, and two brothers, William and Leo Pauling, and a sister, Mrs. Emma Westphal, all of Roselle. Funeral services tomorrow will be held from a chapel at 3905 Lincoln Avenue., Chicago, to St. Paul's Evangelical Church, Bloomingdale at 2:30 with burial in the church cemetery.

Elgin Daily Courier news – Wednesday, December 9, 1986