

Mrs. Alma B. Plote, wife of Gustav E. Plote of Harvard, died at 4:30 o'clock this morning at St. Joseph's Hospital, after a short illness. Mrs. Plote was born in McHenry County, May 1, 1901 and made her home in Elgin for quite some time previous to her marriage. She was a devout member of Trinity Lutheran Church, Harvard, IL. Surviving her are her husband and five children: Walter aged 7, Edwin aged g (no number shown – just a lower case g), Dorothy aged 4, Bernice aged 2, and her infant son born last Monday morning, and by her mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. William Schultz of Crystal Lake, IL.; four brothers, Paul of Algonquin, Albert of Woodstock, William and Charley of Crystal Lake. Funeral services will be held Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock from her parents home 723 Van Buren street, Crystal Lake. Burial will be at Crystal Lake Cemetery.

Elgin Courier-News Saturday, June 25, 1927.

---

6-1927

Mrs. Alma B. Plote wife of Gustav E. Plote of Harvard died at 4:30 o'clock this morning at St. Joseph Hospital after a short illness. Mrs. Plote was born in McHenry County May 1, 1901 and made her home in Elgin for some time previous to her marriage. She was a devout member of Trinity Lutheran Church, Harvard, Illinois. Surviving are her husband and 5 children, Walter age 7, Edwin, Dorothy, Bernice and her infant son born last Monday morning and by her father and mother Mr. and Mrs. William Schultz of Crystal Lake and 4 brothers. Burial will be at Crystal Lake Cemetery.

---

6-1927

Mrs. Alma Plote, wife of Gustav Plote of Harvard, died at 4:30 o'clock this morning at St. Joseph Hospital after a short illness. Mrs. Plote was born in McHenry County May 1, 1901 and made her home in Elgin for some time previous to her marriage. She was a devout member of Trinity Lutheran Church, Harvard, Illinois. Surviving her are her husband and 5 children, Walter aged 7, Edwin, Dorothy age 4 and Bernice age 2 and her infant son born last Monday morning and by her mother and father Mr. And Mrs. William Schultz of Crystal Lake, Illinois and 4 brothers. Funeral services will be held Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock from her parents home 723 Van Buren Street, Crystal Lake. Burial will be at Crystal Lake Cemetery.