

Mrs. Dorothea Plote, widow of Adolph Plote, prominent retired farmer of Plato Township, died Monday afternoon at 4:15 at the home of her son, Fred Plote, of Burlington Township, following a lingering illness of 10 years duration. She was born Feb. 7, 1866 in Hanover Township, where she resided until her marriage in 1887, moving to Schaumburg Township for one year after which they made their home in Plato Township, residing there until 1925 when Mr. Plote retired and moved to Burlington. After the death of her husband, Mrs. Plote made her home with her son, Fred, having spent the past 4 ½ years with him. She was a member of the St. Peter Lutheran Church of North Plato. Surviving are 10 children, six sons, Adolph C. and Herman of Elgin, Gustav E. of Harvard, Il. Ernst and William of Plato Township and Fred of Burlington Township.; four daughters, Mrs. William Totenhagen of Ontarioville, Mrs. Edward Frike of Elgin, Mrs. Edward G. Wesemann of Udira and Mrs. Carl Jensen of Hanover Township; three brothers, August and Chris Volkening of Hanover Township and Herman Volkening of Elgin; 19 Grandchildren and five great grandchildren. One son, Carl, died at the age of three months, due to an accident. Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at 1 from the Norris Mortuary and at 2 from the St. Peter Lutheran Church at North Plato with the Rev. Werner Schmietke officiating. Burial will take place at North Plato Union Cemetery. Friends may call at the Norris Mortuary.

Elgin Daily Courier-News Tuesday, October 6, 1936

---

10-1936

Mrs. Dorothea Plote, widow of Adolph Plote prominent retired farmer of Plato Township died Monday afternoon at 4:15 at the home of her son, Fred Plote of Burlington Township following a lingering illness of 10 years duration. She was born February 7, 1866 in Hanover Township where she resided until her marriage in 1887 moving to Schaumburg Township for 1 year after which they made their home in Plato Township residing there until 1925 when Mr. Plote retired and moved to Burlington. After the death of her husband Mrs. Plote made her home with her son Fred having spent the last 4 ½ years with him. She was a member of the St. Peter Lutheran Church of North Plato. Surviving her are 10 children, 6 sons, Adolf C and Herman of Elgin, Gustav E of Harvard, Illinois, Ernst and William of Plato Township and Fred of Burlington Township; 4 daughters, Mrs. William Totenhagen of Ontarioville, Mrs. Edward Frike of Elgin, Mrs. Edward Weseman of Udira and Mrs. Carl Jensen of Hanover Township; 3 brothers August and Chris Volkening of Hanover Township and Herman Volkening of Elgin; 19 grandchildren and 5 great grandchildren. 1 son Carl died at the age of 3 months due to an accident. Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at 1 from the Norris Mortuary and at 2 from the St. Peter Lutheran Church at North Plato with the Rev. Werner Schmietke officiating. Burial will take place at North Plato Union Cemetery. Friends may call the Norris Mortuary.