

Mrs. Bertha Randecker
(Stoughton, Wis.)

Mrs. Bertha Randecker, 83 of Stoughton, Wis., formerly of Bloomingdale, died Sunday of a heart attack in the home of a daughter, Mrs. Rosina Urann, in Minneapolis, Minn., where she was spending the winter months. She was born March 17, 1875. The widow of Charles Randecker, she was a member of St. Paul's United Church of Christ, Bloomingdale, and a member of the Women's Guild of the church. Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Urann and Miss Lena Randecker, and three sons, Victor, Harold and Harry Randecker, all of Stoughton. Services will be held in a chapel in Stoughton Tuesday evening and in St Paul's United Church of Christ, Bloomingdale, at 1:30 pm Wednesday, Rev Karl Gaertner officiating. Burial will be in the church cemetery.

March 9, no year – no paper cited (Elgin Courier-News?)