

Frank J. Siems

Frank J. Siems, 69, a lifelong resident of Stephenson County, passed away at a local hospital early this morning. Funeral services will be conducted at the Walker Mortuary, West Main Street, at 1:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. Rev. Carl M. Grahl, pastor of Zion Reformed Church will conduct the services and interment will be made in city cemetery. Frank J. Siems was born in Freeport July 1, 1870, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Siems. He was employed for some time by the Woodmanse Manufacturing Company and later by the Illinois Central railroad company as a blacksmith. He made his home with his brother, John Siems, for some years but when the latter passed away last April he moved to the home of his Niece, Mrs. John Ceroni, Lancaster Township. Besides the one with whom he made his home, he leaves another niece, Isabelle Brubaker, Brook, Calif., and a nephew, Arthur W. Siems, Freeport.

Freeport Journal Standard Tuesday Aug. 1, 1939 p.12

Note on document: Henry Siems, May 14, 1877 – 1-25-1884 a brother?