

Sweer Siems

Hampton – Sweer Siems, 81, of Hampton, died Wednesday (April 5, 1995) at Franklin General Hospital. Funeral services will be held at 1:30 Friday at the Congregational United Church of Christ, with the Rev. Eldon Jandebour and the Rev. John Chapple officiating. Burial will be in Hampton Cemetery. Visitation will be from 3 to 8 tonight at the Sietsema-Vogel Funeral Home in Hampton. Sweer Siems was born June 27, 1913 in Butler County. Survivors include a son, Robert Siems, Hampton; a daughter, Mary Ann Ehman, Dike; four brothers, Ben Siems, John Siems and Freddie Siems, all of Ackley, and Raymond Siems, Clarksville; two sisters, Marion Bolts, Wellsburg and Betty Bolts, Holland, Iowa; six grandchildren; 11 great grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his parents, his wife and one sister.

Mason City Globe Gazette
April 6, 1995

---

Sweer Siems

Sweer Siems, 81, Hampton, died April 5, 1995, at Franklin General Hospital, Hampton. Siems was born June 27, 1913 in Butler County. His parents were Fred Siems and Tillie Hovenga Siems. He received his education in Butler country schools. He married Grace Lursen May 26, 1937 in Ackley. A truck driver for Franklin County, Siems was a member of the Congregational United Church of Christ, Hampton. He was preceded in death by his parents, his wife and a sister. Survivors include a son, Robert, Hampton; a daughter, Mrs. Richard (Mary Ann) Ehmen, Dike; four brothers, Ben, Freddie and John, Ackley and Raymond, Clarksville; two sisters, Marion Bolts, Wellsburg and Betty Bolts, Holland; six grandchildren and 11 great grandchildren. Funeral services were held Friday, April 7 at the Congregational United Church. Burial followed in Hampton Cemetery. Sietsema Voegel Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Ackley World Journal April 12, 1995