

William H. Siems

William H. Siems, 85, of 513 S. Vine Ave., died at 7:40 pm Wednesday at St. Joseph's Hospital, where he was admitted Nov. 25. Services will be at 2 pm Sunday at Hansen Funeral Home, the Rev. Ronald A. Jensen of Immanuel Lutheran officiating. Burial will be in Hillside Cemetery. Duane S. Helgeson will be soloist and Mrs. Carol Snelling, organist. Visitation will be from 4 to 8 pm Saturday at Hansen Funeral Home and on Sunday until the time of services. Mr. Siems, son of Mr. and Mrs. John (Minnie Nolf) Siems, was born March 29, 1899 in Chicago, where he attended schools. He and Hilda M. Roehrborn were married Aug. 28, 1928 in Chicago. He was a conductor on streetcars for the Chicago Transit System. In 1940, he and his wife operated B&B Floral shop in Berwyn, Ill., until 1966. He then was employed by Amlings Garden Center in Chicago. After retirement, they moved to Marshfield in 1986. He lived here since and his wife died Sept. 28, 1978. A member of Immanuel Lutheran Church here and the Loyal Order of the Moose Lodge No. 424 in Berwyn, Ill. Mr. Siems is survived by a sister, Miss Mary Siems of Chicago. He was also predeceased by his parents. Memorials may be designated to Immanuel Lutheran Church or its Christian Day School.

Marshfield News Herald - Thursday 13 Dec 1984 Pg. 19

Mr. William H. Siems, 85, of 513 S. Vine Ave. died at 7:40 pm Wednesday at St. Joseph's Hospital where he was admitted Nov. 25. Services will be at 2 pm Sunday at Hansen Funeral Home, the Rev. Ronald Jansen of Immanuel Lutheran Church officiating. Burial will be in Hillside Cemetery. Duane Helgeson will be soloist and Mrs. Carol Snelling, organist. Visitation will be from 4-8 pm Saturday at Hansen Funeral Home and on Sunday until the time for services. Mr. Siems, son of Mr. and Mrs. John (Minnie Noff) Siems, was born March 29, 1899 in Chicago where he attended schools. He and Hilda M. Roehrborn were married August 28, 1928 in Chicago. He was a conductor on streetcars for the Chicago Transit System. In 1940, he and his wife operated B&B Floral Shop in Berwyn, Illinois until 1966. He then was employed by Amlings Garden Center in Chicago. After retirement, they moved to Marshfield in 1966. He lived here since and his wife died September 28, 1978. A member of Immanuel Lutheran Church here and the Loyal Order of Moose Lodge No. 424 in Berwyn, Illinois. Mr. Siems is survived by a sister, Miss Mary Siems of Chicago. He also was predeceased by his parents. Memorials may be designated to Immanuel Lutheran Church or its Christian Day School.

Marshfield, Wisconsin News-Herald
Thursday, December 13, 1984 pp.19