

George A. Sitler

Funeral services were held Oct. 8 in Glen Ellyn for George A. Sitler, 52, of 258 Evergreen Ln., Bloomingdale, died Oct 14 in Central DuPage Hospital, Winfield. A former resident of Indianapolis, he was an eight year resident of Bloomingdale. He was preceded in death by his wife, Margie Gay (Martin) Sitler. Survivors are three daughters, Debra Jean (Robert) Dummich, of N. Lauderdale, Fla., Patricia Ann Bushong and Barbara Lynn (Richard Miller, both of Bloomingdale; a son, George Michael Sitler of Bloomingdale; four brothers, William of Highland Park, Mich., Ralph of Livonia, Mich., Harry of East Detroit, Mich., and Robert of Hinsdale, Ohio and two grandchildren. Mr. Sitler was a member of Brookside Masonic Lodge Af and AM, Murat Temple and Scottish Rite all of Indianapolis and the Northwest Chapter of the Medinah Temple of Elk Grove Village. He was an Army veteran of World War II and was employed 28 years with General Motors Corp. Memorial may be sent to Shriners Hospital for Crippled Children, 2211 N. Oak Park Blvd., Chicago.

The Bloomingdale Star – Wednesday, October 18, 1978