

Eva Slocum of Glen Ellyn for 81 years. Funeral services for Eva Slocum, 90, will be held at 10 a.m. Saturday, at The Leonard Memorial Home, Ltd., 565 Duane St., Glen Ellyn. Officiating will be reader, Mr. Ray Fisher. Born April 8, 1913, in Portland, Ore., she died Sunday, Dec. 21, 2003, at Lexington Healthcare, Bloomingdale. Interment will be in Chapel Hill Gardens West Cemetery, Oakbrook Terrace. Mrs. Slocum was a homemaker. She graduated in 1931 from Glenbard High School in Glen Ellyn and loved raising her family and living her life in the same town. She had many passions, including family, music, young people, antiques, history, nature and Bridge. She enjoyed supporting the community, scouting and various clubs. Eva was also a lifelong active member of the First Church of Christ Science in Glen Ellyn. Survivors include her loving children, Chuck (Debbie), Bill (Pamela) and David; grandchildren, Lynn (Leonard) Foster, Richard (Angie), Ann and Wesley; great-grandchildren, Alex, Michael and Hallie; and her daughters-in-law, Vicki and Sue. She was preceded in death by her beloved husband, Bob Slocum. Visitation will be from 9 a.m. until the time of services Saturday, at the funeral home. Friends may visit www.dailyherald.com/obits to express condolences and sign the guest book. For funeral information, (630)469-0032.

Source: The Daily Herald - Wednesday, December 24, 2003