

From the Daily Herald 6-17-49

Melton A. Sporleder

Final rites for Melton A. Sporleder, late of 315 S. Emerson St., Mt. Prospect, were held Tuesday from St. Paul's Lutheran church. Rev. J. E. A. Mueller officiated and interment was in St. Lucas cemetery. Arrangements were in charge of Oehler's chapel. Mr. Sporleder was born March 24, 1911 in Chicago. He had been employed for the Chicago Title and Trust company for 22 years, holding the position of supervisor of the judgment department at the time of his death. He died suddenly Saturday at his home. Survivors include his wife, Bernice; children, Jeanne and David; mother, Mrs. Millie C. Sporleder; brother, William F.; and two sisters, Mrs. Mildred Meilahn and Mrs. Louise Mix.