

Mrs. Sophie Springinsguth, 56, wife of Henry Springinsguth, 318 Lovell St., a former resident of Schaumburg Township, died Saturday afternoon at Sherman Hospital following a brief illness. She was born in Schaumburg on Jan. 29, 1892, the daughter of William and Sophie Oltendorf Shueneman, and had lived there until three years ago when she and her husband, to whom she was married in 1914, moved to Elgin. She was a member of St. Peter's Lutheran Church in Schaumburg and the Ladies Aid Society. Survivors are her widower; a son Ralph, of Schaumburg Township; a daughter, Miss Mildred Springinsguth of Elgin; six sisters and two brothers. She was preceded in death by one son who died in infancy. Funeral services will be held at 2 Tuesday afternoon from St. Peter's Church and burial will be in the Lake Street Memorial Park. The Rev. Martin Behling of Schaumburg will officiate. Friends may call at the Richert & Son Funeral Home at Roselle.
