

Extend Sympathies To Vojta Family

Keith Vojta, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald J. Vojta, 612 Lexington Ave., in Roselle was fatally injured Thursday evening in Elk Grove Village. Death occurred when the motorcycle in which Vojta was riding went out of control and struck a tree. It was reported that Vojta and his girlfriend Marie Caccavallo of Streamwood were riding on the paths in the Elk Grove Forest Preserve when the accident happened. A second cyclist saw the mishap and contacted authorities. Keith was pronounced dead on arrival at St. Alexian Brothers Hospital, where Miss Cacavallo is now recuperating in satisfactory condition after suffering injuries in the same crash. Services for Vojta were held Monday at Martins Funeral Home in Roselle. Keith is survived by his parents Ronald and Conni Vojta and his three brothers and sisters, Karen, Kim and Kevin. Conni Vojta, employee of the Village News, informed this newspaper of the accident Friday afternoon. The staff and families of the Village News extend their deepest sympathies to the entire Vojta family.
