

Barry Joseph Weber of Bloomingdale. Funeral services for Barry Joseph Weber, 54, will be held at 9:30 a.m. Saturday, at the York Center Church of the Brethren, 13th Street and Luther Ave., Lombard, where he will lie in state from 9 a.m. until the time of services. The Rev. Christy Walterdorff will officiate. He died suddenly Tuesday, March 5, 2002. Interment will be in Chapel Hill Gardens West Cemetery. Mr. Weber devoted his life to helping others through ministry and psychology. He was a graduate of Willowbrook High School, Hamilton College, University of Rochester, Loyola University with a PhD, Bethany Theological Seminary with a MDIV, and was a certified forensic psychologist. Barry was the beloved father of Tania (Tim) Moon, Katie (Dave) Chiet and twins, Aireal and Barry II Weber; loving son of Joseph and Linda Weber; dear brother of Cindy Weber (Kathy Gingrich), Amy (Mel) Hoyt and Wendy MacDonald; proud grandfather of Tyler and Kyle Moon; special nephew of Andrea Kristof; and fond uncle and cousin of many. Visitation will be from 3 to 9 p.m. today, at the Chapel Hill Gardens West Funeral Home, 17W201 Roosevelt Road (just west of Route 83), Oakbrook Terrace. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to the Barry and Aireal Weber Trust Fund, c/o America Charter Bank, 700 W. Euclid Ave., Palatine, IL 60067. Family and friends are invited to sign the guest book at dailyherald.com/obits. For information, (630)941-5860.

Source: The Daily Herald -
Friday, March 8, 2002