

July 1958

A 65 year resident of Elmhurst, Joseph Wiesneth, 69, died July 3 at Memorial Hospital after a several month illness. He lived at 105 Pine Street. Funeral services were held Monday at Robillard Funeral Home and at Immaculate Conception Church. Burial was at St. Isidore Cemetery, Cloverdale. Born in Germany, Mr. Wiesneth came to America as a young child. He had been employed at Westmore Supply Company in Lombard until his retirement in 1956. He was a member of Teamster Union 782. He is survived by his widow, Elizabeth; a daughter, Isabel and sons Irvin and Eugene of 105 Pine Street, Elmhurst. Other survivors include 4 sisters, Mrs. Barbara Randecker of Bloomingdale, Mrs. Rose Stark of Bartlett, Mrs. Elizabeth Fiedler of West Chicago and Mrs. Anna Steil of Aurora and 5 brothers, Bill of Union Grove, Wisconsin, Otto of Louisville, Nebraska, John of San Fernando, California, Frank of Bartlett and George of Huntley.