Downloading eBooks: eInk eReaders (Black and White Screens) - Barnes & Noble Nook, Kobo, & More

To download library eBooks for an eInk eReader, you must install free software on your computer. You can't download library eBooks directly to your eInk eReader.

1. To use library eBooks on your eReader, you must download the free Adobe Digital Editions software at http://www.adobe.com/solutions/ebook/digital-editions/download.html. Click on your operating system to download (Mac or Windows) and save the file.

Adobe Digital Editions 4.5.10 Installers

Locate your preferred platform and click on it to download the installer. Then run the installer on your machine to install Adobe Digital Editions. For information on the Adobe Digital Editions' privacy policy, see here; for information on the general Adobe privacy policy, see here.

Download Digital Edition 4.5.10 Windows (8.24MB)

2. When the file is downloaded, open the file and click Run.

3. Check the box to accept the License Agreement and click Next.
4. Click Next.

5. Click Install. Click Close.

6. In the Adobe Digital Editions software, click Help and Authorize Computer.

7. If you already have an Adobe ID, enter your Adobe ID (email) and password, click Authorize, and skip to Step 9. If you don't have an Adobe ID (most people won't if you haven't used library eBooks before), click Create an Adobe ID.

If you don't have an Adobe ID, select Create an Adobe ID, which will take you to Adobe's website where you will set up an account.

8. Fill out the online form. When you have succesfully created your Adobe ID, go back to Step 7 to Authorize the software. Once you have authorized the software, you will not need to do this again.

9. Visit the Digital Library of Illinois website to browse the library's downloadable books at https://dlil.overdrive.com. Click on the Sign In button.

10. Select Bloomingdale Public Library from the drop-down list, and then enter your library card number and PIN. Check the Remember my card number on this device box to save your library card number and then click Sign In.

13. Once you find a book that's available to check out, click the BORROW link under the title. TIP: If the book says WAIT LIST and PLACE A HOLD, all copies of the book are checked out. Click the PLACE A HOLD link to get added to the wait list.

Copy available. Tap on the BORROW link to check out.

No copies available. Tap on the PLACE A HOLD link to be added to the wait list.
14. Click the BORROW button. Next, click the Download EPUB ebook or Download PDF ebook button.

15. A Device Compatibility Notice box will pop up. Click the CONFIRM button.

16. If your book does not automatically open in Adobe Digital Editions, click on the file to Open it from your browser (this screen may look slightly different depending on your browser).

17. Your book will download to Adobe Digital Editions and automatically open. Click on Library to go back to your bookshelf.

18. Plug in your eReader to your computer with the USB cable. When your computer finds the device, it will show on the left hand side under Devices. There are two ways you can transfer the book to your device. You can drag and drop the title from the bookshelf to the eReader.
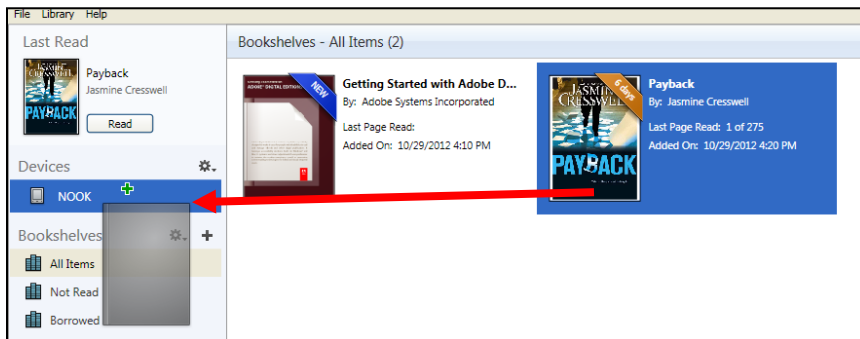

Alternatively, you can right click on the title, select Copy to Computer/Device and select the eReader name.
19. To return a book early, right click on a title's book cover, and then select Return Borrowed Item.
